So, as you can see, there are plenty of fun school tours you can organise for your school, here in Sligo and slightly further afield.

Experienced Archaeologist Guide

BRING your class out for an interesting day with an experienced Archaeologist Guide, Auriel Robinson, who runs Seatrails. She offers guided walking tours and unforgettable experiences at ancient sites or places of historic interest in Sligo either by the coast or inland. On a fieldtrip or school tour, students will have a fun and interesting time learning about the past and nature while appreciating their surroundings inspecting fossils, observing nature, visiting ancient archaeological sites or historic buildings depending on the location you choose. Auriel will arrange either a coastal tour or a mountainous tour for your school on a day that suits. The groups must be accompanied and supervised by two teachers/responsible adults and transport must be provided by the school. Simply contact Auriel to discuss options and give your students an educational and fun trip right on their doorstep.

If you are a primary school, you can organise a fieldtrip with Auriel via the Heritage in Schools Programme and Auriel will show you how.
